"My concern is...with the delineation of inner spaces created by the overlapping transparencies of colours. Each form has its own inner space, yet it is constantly connecting with another and flowing into it. I depict both positive and negative space, light and dark colours, harmonious and contrasting colours; not just depicting but making use of one to enhance the other..."

Only in its reciprocal reflection does each disclose its own meaning..."

G13 Project Room proudly presents a Malaysian senior women artist named Dato' Sharifah Fatimah Syed Zubir. This exhibition will be the fourteenth installment of G13 Project Room.

Sharifah Fatimah Syed Zubir was born in Alor Setar, Kedah. She received her early education in Alor Setar. After completing her schooling, Sharifah Fatimah continued her studies at the Mara Institute of Technology (ITM) in 1967 specialising in Fine Arts. She received her Diploma in Fine Arts in 1971, and at the same time she also received the award as the Best Student of Mara Institute of Technology. After completing her studies at the Mara Institute of Technology, Sharifah Fatimah continued her studies at Reading University, England in 1973 and graduated with a Bachelor's degree in 1976. In 1978, Sharifah obtained her Master's degree in the field of Fine Arts from Dratt Institute, New York. She is a prominent abstract artist in Malaysia and she belongs to the group of artists of the 70's era.

An abstract painting featuring a dense composition of thick, expressive brushstrokes. The color palette is rich and varied, including deep reds, vibrant greens, bright yellows, and dark browns, all interspersed with prominent, thick white strokes that create a sense of movement and depth. The overall effect is one of dynamic energy and complex texture.
